CDLI Mid-Course Exam Schedule & Guidelines 2026-2027

- Schools with CDLI enrollments must follow this schedule for courses offered via CDLI.
- Students are encouraged to take home belongings needed for studying several days in advance of their scheduled exam.
- Any student with an ROA is entitled to the appropriate exam accommodations as noted in the student's IEP and/or ROA.
- Missed exams will be written at the end of the exam period. Individual schools affected by school closures are asked to consult with CDLI teachers if their school closes when a CDLI exam is scheduled. Further details regarding parameters around weather closures and missed exams, including PEP exams, will be communicated at a later date.

Mid-Course Exams / Assessments

- Exams are two hours in length; non-cumulative assessments are 1 hour in length.
- While no new instruction or assessment will occur during the exam period, teachers will be available to students.
- Mid-course examinations represent the final opportunity in the first half of a course, and end-of-course examinations represent the final opportunity in the second half of a course to demonstrate learning for the assessed outcomes.
