

UNB's 2022 Virtual Education Career Fair

When: January 20th, 2022

Time: 11:00 AM – 7:00 PM

Where: Virtual

Students from the following post-secondary institutions will be attending this year's Education Career Fair:

- The University of New Brunswick Faculty of Education boasts a strong tradition of enthusiastic, quality graduates. Our graduates have developed an excellent reputation in the field of Education both in New Brunswick and nationwide. Undergraduate Education degree programs at UNB-F include Elementary, Junior/Senior and Adult Education. UNB also offers Master's and Doctoral level programs as well as a French-language area of concentration.
- St. Thomas University Education students concentrate either in elementary (K-5), secondary (6-12) or French second language through co-operative learning and teamwork, along with practical teaching techniques.
- University of Prince Edward Island Education Faculty offers a program in K-12, a concentration in French, and specialized programs in International Education and Indigenous Education.

Registration for the career fair is now open

Would you like to continue to receive information about Recruiting events (or unsubscribe)?

Would you like to discuss the ways your organization can make meaningful connections with UNB's student talent? Book an appointment with Employer Services.